Subject (in full) A.A.Vassilieff, candidate for position of Police Watchman.

Made by D.S.I. Prokofiev. Forwarded by D. J. Lovegrove.

With reference to the attached application by A.A.Vassilieff for a position as Police Watchman, this individual's antecedents and record as known to this office are as follows:-

Alexander Alexandrovitch Vassilieff, Russian, born July 21,1901 at Vladivostock. He arrived in Shanghai from Vladivostock via Harbin in October 1925 and has since been residing in this city. He worked as a chauffeur for some time and from June 1927 till October, 1933, was employed as a watchman (unarmed) with various cabarets situated in Rue Chu Pao San, French Concession, including Charleston Cafe, New Royal Cafe, Cafe Maxime, and Cafe Rabbit.

Enquiries show that Vassiliev has the reputation of a man indulging in frequent drinking bouts and, whilst under the influence of drink, inclined to be troublesome.

On June 29,1927, he was charged with assault at the French Mixed Court and was sentenced to two months imprisonment (suspended) and fined $ 60.00 for damage.
